PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 2.-The Mackmen still have the class, and today they will endeavor to clean up the Phillies again, yesterday's contest being a hollow victory for the American Leaguers, 8 to 0. Young Weldon Wyckoff, former Bucknell twirler, pitched the entire game for the Mackmen, allowing but six scatered hits and never a sign of a run. Meanwhile, Taylor and Liewellyn, the two kid pitchers used by Dooin, got their bumps good and plenty. and plenty.

Frank Baker, the Trappe, Md., lad, went to bat five times. Only once was he retired, the other four times crashing singles off his bat like rifle shots. Baker seemed to have his batting eye clear. ### Earl Hamilton Shows Great Form on Mound

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 2-Earl Ham ilton, the Browns' great little southpaw, scattered hits for six innings in the sec ond game of the spring series. The Browns landed the victory, 3 to 0. The Browns scored their three runs in one inning. Hamilton singled, with Walsh and Alexander on the bases. Magee could have nailed Walsh at the plate, but his throw was high over Wingo's head, Hamilton reaching third on the heave. Shotten's sacrifice fly scored the nitcher.

Western High Plays Georgetown Friday | kept in good condition by playing with independent teams in California, and should be able to jump right in and pitch good ball.

Western High School is wondering today just what it will be able to accomday just what it will be able to accomplish against Georgetown University on Friday, Coach White having arranged a game with the Hilltoppers. With a win and a lose from the Maryland Aggles, Western is confident of making a good showing on Georgtown Field.

Errors in yesterday's game at College Park made a win possible for the Aggles. The score was 2 to 1, Nicholson, pitching for Westerns, showed exceptionally good form.

Hughey Jennings says that exhibition games in the South have ceased to be money-makers for major league clubs and that the practice is doomed. ### Tol Pendelton Is Followed by Jinx

PRINCETON, April 2.—Coach Bill Clarke, of the Tiger nine, is beginning to think that a jinx is hauging over Tol Pendieton, the crack football and baseball player of Princeton. Pendieton of the Harford county racing commission in declaring for a race tract monopoly in that county. The doctor believes that he will be able to save it, however. It will put the speed king out of the game for at least a fortnight. This is the third consecutive season that Pendleton has been injurred at the opening of the year.

CALIFORNIA SENDS MONSTER OCCASION MANY TO BIG LEAGUE

NEW ORLEANS, April 2.-California

SCHAEF STARTS IN, GAME IS RUINED

NEW ORLEANS, April 2.—California colleges certainly have done their share toward supplying the professional baseball leagues with star players. St. Mary's, Luke Glavenich's alma mater, has developed Duffy Lewis, Harry Krause, Dutch Leonard, Eddie Burns, Enright and Hallinan, all connected with big leagues at some time or other.

Santa Clara has contributed Hall Chase, Bobby Keefe, and Wolters. St. Vincent's is proud of Fred Snodgrass if he did make the muff that beat the Giants out of the world's series, and California University sent Orval Overall and Dick Egan, of the Reds into the big show. That's quite a record for four colleges.
